The Mirror without a Face: The Assessment of Parental

Parental alienation syndrome is a term coined by child psychiatrist Richard Gardner and introduced in his 1985 paper. The term was used to describe a suite of distinctive behaviors that he argued were shown by children who have been psychologically manipulated into showing. Those behaviors include unwarranted fear, disrespect or hostility towards a parent and/or other family members. Most children described in the paper were alleged to have been manipulated by the other parent and during child c
